Futures Price Trend

Market Analysis

ICE arabica coffee futures tumbled to four-day lows on Friday as the May contract headed to an underlying strike price before the April options expired and a big private forecast for Brazil's crop leaned on values. The downfall from a one-week high was also partly after a government report showed U.S. consumer prices were unchanged last month, reducing the appeal of some commodities as hedges against inflation. ICE May arabica coffee settled down 565 points at $1.5220 a pound, with July off 565 points. ICE May robusta coffee settled at $1.2090 a pound, down 340 points. LIFFE Mar settled down $112 at $2621/tonne while May settled down $127 at $2631/tonne.
